Save Up to 35% on Round-Trip Train Travel & Admission to the Show

The Long Island Rail Road is your best land-based way to visit the 2017 Progressive Insurance® New York Boat Show®, opening at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in Manhattan on Wednesday, January 25, for a four day run.

The LIRR is offering NY Boat Show package that includes round trip train travel and admission to the nautical extravaganza at a savings of up to 35%. Once inside the Javits Center, you'll find 400 of the latest in luxury motor yachts, sport fishers, performance boats, watersport boats as well as thousands of new marine technologies and accessories. With a full selection for every budget and lifestyle, including boats that can be financed for less than $250 a month, there is no better place to shop and compare. And just for kicks and giggles, be sure to tour the Queen of the Show – a 51-foot Beneteau Gran Turismo GT49 yacht that features stunning interiors and panoramic sea views, equipped with every technology to cruise with ease.

Visit the LIRR's "New York City Getaways" page at www.mta.info/lirr/getaways for full details on the LIRR's 2017 New York Boat Show Package. Tickets are available at any LIRR ticket window or full-service ticket machine (gray, green or blue). Select "Getaways/Packages" on the first screen, then NYC Getaways, and New York Boat Show. Once you arrive at Penn Station, the Javits Center is a three-block walk west to 11th Ave. or cover the route via the M34 westbound bus, boarding at 34th St. and 8th Ave. The show runs through Sunday, January 29. Visit www.nyboatshow.com for event details.
