Metro-North to Provide Weekend Substitute Bus Service Between New Canaan and Stamford From Friday Evening, March 24, Through Sunday, March 26

Service Change Will Accommodate New Canaan Branch Improvements

MTA Metro-North Railroad today announced that buses will replace trains on the New Canaan Branch after 10 p.m. on Friday, March 24, through the last train of the night on Sunday, March 26. Westbound buses will operate 15-20 minutes earlier than scheduled trains. Customers should listen for announcements and check local or express bus service to their destination while boarding.

This weekend's service change will help ensure the on-going reliability and safety of the New Canaan Branch. Metro-North crews will be doing switch work in Stamford, which will take the Branch out of service. Crews will also be cutting brush and welding track.
