The Best Way to Go: Take the LIRR's Extra Service to Four Major Events This Weekend, June 9-10, and Beyond

Tens of Thousands of Passengers Expected to Ride the Rails to Belmont Stakes, Long Island Pride, National Puerto Rican Day Parade, U.S. Open Championship at Shinnecock Hills; System Wide Alcohol Ban

MTA Long Island Rail Road is gearing up for an event-filled weekend June 9-10 in preparation for tens of thousands of riders expected to take the train to Belmont Stakes, Long Island Pride, the National Puerto Rican Day Parade and U.S. Open Championship at Shinnecock Hills.

LIRR has added extra service to several branches and encourages customers to leave their cars and worries about traffic and parking at home, and get to and from these events via the railroad.

"We want the entire region to know that if they want to come to Long Island, to visit family, head to the beaches, or go to one of the many fine events hosted here, the railroad is absolutely the best way to go," LIRR President Phil Eng said. "Our staff is prepared to get our passengers where they need to go and ensure they have a safe and fun experience."

With these events expected to draw large crowds, MTA Police will enforce a system wide alcohol ban for the duration of the weekend, as has been done in past years.

To avoid higher on-board fares and save time, customers are encouraged to purchase round-trip tickets in advance. Customers can purchase tickets anytime, anywhere via the MTA eTix app for iPhone or Android.

For all specifics on service schedules, please see a link to each special timetable below.

Belmont Stakes - Saturday, June 9 - Special Timetable and Complete Info Here

- Eastbound: The LIRR will operate 21 eastbound trains to Belmont Park between 9:39 a.m. and 4:21 p.m., most of them direct from Penn Station. Customers traveling from Brooklyn, Woodside and stations on Long Island can connect with Belmont trains at Jamaica.
- Return trains depart at 4:20 p.m., 4:51 p.m., 5:20 p.m., 5:51 p.m. and 6:35 p.m. Then, immediately following the Belmont Stakes and continuing until Belmont Park closes, trains will depart approximately every 15 minutes to Jamaica and Penn Station, with connections at Jamaica available to Atlantic Terminal and points east. LIRR personnel will be assigned at key locations to assist customers.
- Belmont Package tickets are available on our mobile eTix app, at LIRR ticket offices as well as from gray, blue and green ticket machines at stations. When buying Belmont tickets at a Ticket Machine, customers should select the Deals & Getaways button. Belmont Park tickets are not sold via the usual alphabetical listing of stations for regular one-ways or round-trips. Tickets are NOT sold at Belmont Station.
- Weekly and monthly ticket holders can use their tickets for travel to Jamaica and need only purchase a $12 round-trip package ticket at an LIRR station prior to boarding the Belmont Special to cover the fare between Belmont Park and Jamaica.

Note: Because of the extra trains, Hempstead Branch trains will operate every two hours, instead of hourly, in both directions between 3 p.m. and 11 p.m. on Saturday, June 9. The four westbound trains usually departing from Hempstead at 4:20 p.m., 6:20 p.m., 8:20 p.m. and 10:20 p.m., will not operate between Hempstead and Jamaica, as will the four eastbound trains that normally depart Jamaica at 3:05 p.m., 5:05 p.m., 7:05 p.m. and 9:05 p.m. (To enable normal connections at Jamaica, all eight of these trains will operate on their normal schedules between Jamaica and Atlantic Terminal, Brooklyn.)

Long Island Pride Weekend in Long Beach – June 8-10 -- Special Timetable Here

The Pride on the Beach events, including the 28th annual Long Island Pride Parade, are taking place within walking distance of the LIRR's Long Beach station. Train service operates hourly regular service throughout the course of the weekend, and to help customers get to the event, the LIRR is operating six extra express trains over the course of the weekend, offering more frequent service (less than half-hourly).

- Eastbound: Four added eastbound trains: 9:15 a.m., 10:04 a.m., 12:15 p.m. and 4:59 p.m. from Penn Station to Long Beach, some with local stops.
- Westbound: 11:08 a.m., 3:51 p.m., 4:42 p.m., 6:03 p.m., and, on Sunday only, a 6:57 p.m. train from Long Beach to Penn Station.

The extra trains supplement existing extra weekend trains for beach-goers. Those trains which depart Penn Station every summer Saturday and Sunday at 10:04 a.m. and 12:15 p.m., make a super-express eastbound run. They run direct to Long Beach with no intermediate stops, not even Jamaica. The returning beach extra trains depart Long Beach at 3:50 p.m. and 6:01 p.m. and run express to Jamaica and Penn Station.
