Ride Metro-North to the Hudson Valley for Restaurant Week, March 12-25

More than Half of Over 200 Participating Restaurants Within Easy Reach from Select Stations

Now you can add delicious to the list of reasons to ride Metro-North Railroad. Hudson Valley Restaurant Week – the belt-busting celebration of some of the region's best cuisine – runs from March 12-25, and more than half of over 200 participating restaurants are within walking distance or a quick cab ride from Metro-North stations. Go from train to table, and experience a top notch dining experience at just a fraction of the normal price point.

The Hudson Valley has grown into New York's premier culinary destination. Hudson Valley Restaurant Week offers deeply discounted three-course prix-fixe lunches at $22.95 and dinners at $32.95. Many chefs' menus include original dishes using the best fresh produce, cheeses and meats, all locally-grown in the Hudson Valley.

Hudson Valley Restaurant Week connects the region's leading artisanal producers and purveyors with chefs, restaurants and the leading business influencers who make up the local food and drink industry. Spanning 114 miles across seven New York State counties, it's geographically one of the largest restaurant week events in the nation. With Metro-North's Ride2Drive program, customers who join Zipcar, have the option of accessing a vehicle at select stations to explore any of the participating restaurants.

Diners don't have to worry about passes, tickets or coupons. Simply chose from a list of available restaurants at www.HudsonValleyRestaurantWeek.com. Then make a reservation at your restaurant of choice and ride Metro-North to the closest station. Customers may call restaurants to get directions from stations.
