Metro-North to Provide Weekend Substitute Bus Service Between New Canaan and Stamford From Friday Evening, July 22, Through Sunday, July 24

Service Change Will Accommodate New Canaan Branch Improvements

MTA Metro-North Railroad today announced that buses will replace trains on Metro-North's New Canaan Branch after 10 p.m. on Friday, July 22, through the last train of the night on Sunday, July 24. Westbound buses will operate 15-20 minutes earlier than scheduled trains. Customers should listen for announcements and check local or express bus service to their destination while boarding.

This weekend's service change will help ensure the on-going reliability and safety of New Canaan Branch trains. Crews will be replacing a road crossing, welding track joints and cutting brush.
