Metro-North

IMMEDIATE

Alternative Bus Service for Port Jervis Line and Pascack Valley Line Beginning Friday, September 30, Until Further Notice

NJ TRANSIT Service Remains Suspended to/from Hoboken Terminal

MTA Metro-North Railroad customers who normally ride the Pascack Valley Line or the Port Jervis Line into or out of Hoboken Terminal, where train service remains suspended, are advised that Metro-North will be providing alternative beginning Friday, September 30, until further notice.

Customers who commute to Jersey City via the Hudson-Bergen Light Rail can board the Hudson Line to connect at Grand Central to the 4 or 5 subway to Fulton Street to connect to the PATH train to Jersey City stations.

Details of bus connections are below:

Metro-North is providing a limited shuttle bus service that will operate from the following locations during peak hours:

- Middletown Station (to Beacon Station on the Hudson Line)
- Harriman Station (to Tarrytown Station on the Hudson Line)
- Palisades Center Park and Ride in West Nyack (to Tarrytown Station on the Hudson Line)

This weekday, rush-hour, peak direction only shuttle service will be extremely limited. There will be no off-peak, weekend or reverse commute service.
