HOW TO QUALIFY

Education and Experience Requirements: There are no formal education or experience requirements for this position.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE APPOINTED

Driver License Requirement: At the time of appointment, you must possess either:

1. A Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions; or
2. A Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York and a Learner Permit for a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions.

If you qualify under “2” above, your appointment will be subject to the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions at the end of a special training course in bus operation. If you fail to successfully complete the special training course in bus operation, including the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions, your employment will be terminated.

If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record, you may be disqualified.

The Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) with passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title.

Commercial Motor Vehicle Driving Experience in the Military or New York National Guard: If you are an active member or former member (discharged in the past year) of the military or New York National Guard and have experience driving a Commercial Motor Vehicle in the military or New York National Guard, you may be eligible for a waiver of the New York State commercial driving skills test through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles. If you believe that you may be eligible for this waiver, you must apply for the waiver through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Bus Operator. You will be examined to determine whether you can perform the essential functions of the position. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be appointed, and if appointed, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) evaluation, referral and education/treatment process required by federal law in order to be appointed to this safety-sensitive position.

Residency: New York City residency is not required for this position.

English Requirement: You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION WHEN REQUESTING A FEE WAIVER

Applicants who wish to request a fee waiver must obtain an Application in person at the MTA Exam Information Center as indicated above and must submit the Application and required forms by mail to the address in the “Correspondence” section below by the last day of the application period.

MTA New York City Transit will not accept Applications in person. Additional information on how to request an application fee waiver is available with the Application.

ADMISSION LETTER

An Admission Letter will be mailed to you about 10 days before the first date of the multiple-choice test. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before this date, you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Applicants must keep their mailing address up to date. The address on file with the MTA Business Service Center may be used to mail correspondence, including the Admission Letter, to MTA employees. Please refer to the Correspondence section below for instructions on how to update your address and other contact information.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive multiple choice test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass this test. Your score on this test will determine your place on the eligible list.

Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that they be applied. Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit should be requested at the time of application, but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans’ or Disabled Veterans’ Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The multiple-choice test may include questions that require the use of any of the following abilities:

Written Comprehension – The ability to understand written sentences or paragraphs. Example: Understanding written bulletins released by MTA New York City Transit.

Written Expression – The ability to use English words or sentences in writing so others will understand. Example: Writing incident reports regarding unusual occurrences.

Short Term Memorization – The ability to remember information, such as work assignments, rules, and procedures immediately after hearing them. Example: Remembering the bus route detour immediately after the detour was stated by the dispatcher over the two way radio.

Problem Sensitivity – The ability to tell when something is wrong or likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem. Example: Recognizing that a parked truck in the bus lane may interfere with the normal operation of the bus.

Deductive Reasoning – The ability to apply general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense. Example: Applying MTA New York City Transit rules and regulations to situations to determine the appropriate action that must be taken.

Inductive Reasoning – The ability to combine separate pieces of information, or specific answers to problems to form general rules or conclusions. It includes coming up with a logical explanation for why a series of unrelated events occur together. Example: Determining the action that must be taken based on a combination of observations and radio chatter from other Bus Operators and the Dispatcher.

Information Ordering – The ability to follow correctly a rule or set of rules to arrange things or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations. Example: Following the step-by-step instructions of a pre-trip inspection of a bus.

Spatial Orientation – The ability to tell where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you. Example: Reading a map and understanding where bus stops are in relation to your location.

Visualization – The ability to imagine how something will look after it is moved around or when its parts are moved or rearranged. Example: Understanding that the scene you saw in your front window is the same scene, just rotated when shown in your rear view mirror after you pass the scene.

Mechanical Aptitude – The ability to understand and apply mechanical concepts and principles to solve problems. Example: Understanding that the bus needs fuel when the fuel gauge is near empty.

Customer Service – The ability to provide information to passengers in a professional and courteous manner. Example: Giving a passenger directions to a location.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are not permitted. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard, word processing, or data recording capabilities, such as planners, organizers, etc., are prohibited.
