Filing Opened: October 2, 2019

SALARY AND BENEFITS

The current minimum salary for Line Supervisor is $75,710 per annum, increasing to $94,638 in the sixth year of service. This rate is subject to change. The benefits of this position include, but are not limited to, night and weekend salary differentials, paid holidays, vacation and sick leave, a comprehensive medical plan and a pension plan.

HOW TO QUALIFY

Education and Experience Requirements: By the last day of the Application Period, you must meet the criteria in either Section A or Section B below.

Section A

- A1. One year of satisfactory full-time experience as a supervisor overseeing journey-level automotive mechanics (i.e., fully trained, proficient, knowledgeable, experienced, and competent) who troubleshoot and repair automotive or aircraft engines and electrical systems, and at least one other automotive or aircraft system, such as transmissions or HVACs systems; and
- A2. Five years of satisfactory full-time experience as a journey-level automotive mechanic performing the work described in "A1" above.

Section B

- B1. One year of satisfactory full-time experience as a supervisor overseeing journey-level automotive mechanics (i.e., fully trained, proficient, knowledgeable, experienced, and competent) who troubleshoot and repair automotive or aircraft engines and electrical systems, and at least one other automotive or aircraft system, such as, transmissions, or HVACs systems; and
- B2. Three years of satisfactory full-time experience as a journey-level automotive mechanic performing the work described in "B1" above that were obtained after one of the following:
 - I. Two years of satisfactory full-time experience as a mechanic's helper, apprentice or trainee performing or assisting in the work described above; or
 - II. Graduation from a recognized trade school or technical school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in automotive mechanics or a closely related field totaling at least 600 hours or more; or
 - III. Graduation from a vocational high school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in automotive mechanics, or a closely related field; or
 - IV. Graduation from an accredited college or university with an AAS degree or higher in automotive mechanics or a closely related field.

If you have qualifying part-time experience, it will be credited on a prorated basis.

The high school, vocational high school, technical school, or trade school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

The following are types of experience that are not acceptable: auto body and fender repair; auto or truck assembly; dealership make-ready repair; gas station service; oil and specialty replacement shop work, such as tire replacement, replacement of exhaust parts (muffler), transmission parts, brakes/braking systems, glass, climate control parts, etc.; and salvage and junkyard extraction.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet included with your application packet. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a “document-by-document” (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to NYC Transit’s Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted. You can also access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet on our website at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. You may be given the Structured Interview before we determine if you meet the qualification requirements. If you are marked “Not Qualified,” your Application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE APPOINTED

Driver License Requirement: At the time of appointment, you must possess either:

1. A Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions that would preclude the performance of the duties of this title; or
2. A Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York and a Learner Permit for a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions.

If you qualify under “2” above, your appointment will be subject to the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions at the end of a special training course in bus operation. If you fail to successfully complete the special training course in bus operation, including the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions, your employment will be terminated. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record, you may be disqualified.

The Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title. Such license and/or Learner Permit must not include any restrictions that would preclude the performance of Line Supervisor work.
