JOB DESCRIPTION

Maintenance Supervisors (Power Electronics), at Assignment Level I, supervise assigned employees who inspect, maintain, test, repair, alter, modify and install electronic and related equipment in MTA New York City Transit's substations and power system; compile and analyze records and write reports; and perform related work.

Some of the physical activities performed by Maintenance Supervisors (Power Electronics) and environmental conditions experienced are: descending on to and climbing off of train tracks; working in repair shops supervising bench work; walking on elevated structures and along track ways; and making visual inspections of cables along track ways where lighting is limited.

Special Working Conditions: Maintenance Supervisors (Power Electronics) may be required to work various shifts, including nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(This brief description does not include all of the duties of this position.)

SALARY

The current minimum salary for Maintenance Supervisor (Power Electronics) is $80,981 per annum. This rate is subject to change. There are two assignment levels within this class of positions. Promotions will be made to Assignment Level I. After promotion, employees may be assigned to the higher assignment level at the discretion of MTA New York City Transit.

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION

This examination is open to each employee of MTA New York City Transit who on the first date of the Structured Interview test:

1. Is permanently (not provisionally) employed in or appears on a Preferred List (see note, below) for the title of Power Electronic Maintainer; and
2. Is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the test before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of MaBSTOA or MTA Bus Company, or to employees of any MTA agency other than MTA New York City Transit.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED

Probationary Period: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title indicated in the above "Eligibility to Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in the title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the title. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least one year. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION AND PAY THE APPLICATION FEE

If you believe you meet the eligibility requirements, submit an application online by the last day of the application period unless you are requesting a Fee Waiver. Applicants who wish to request a Fee Waiver should refer to the "How to Submit an Application When Requesting a Fee Waiver" section below.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. You should refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") Exam Regulations to determine if you are entitled to a refund prior to requesting a refund. You can refer to the bottom of the last page of this Notice of Examination for instructions on how to obtain a copy of the DCAS Exam Regulations.

Online Applications:

1. Apply using the "BSC" employee portal at: www.mymta.info by the last day of the application period.
2. You must pay the application fee via payroll deduction. Applicants who request a fee waiver must apply by mail.
3. You will be sent a confirmation email after you complete your application and pay the application fee.

Computers with internet access are available on a limited basis at branches of the New York Public Library, the Brooklyn Public Library and the Queens Library to patrons with a valid library card.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION WHEN REQUESTING A FEE WAIVER

Applicants who wish to request a Fee Waiver must obtain an Application in person at the MTA New York City Transit Exam Information Center as indicated below and must submit the Application and required forms by mail to the address in the Correspondence section below by the last day of the application period.

MTA New York City Transit will not accept applications in person. Additional information on requesting an application fee waiver is available with the Application.

MTA New York City Transit Exam Information Center: Open Monday through Friday, from 9 AM to 3 PM, in the lobby at 180 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, New York. Directions: take the A, C, F, or R trains to the Jay Street-Metro Tech Station, or the 2, 3, or G train to the Hoyt Street Station.

ADMISSION LETTER

An Admission Letter will be mailed to you about 10 days before the first date of the Structured Interview test. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before the first date of the Structured Interview test you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA New York City Transit Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the Structured Interview test.

Employees must keep their official mailing address up to date. Only the address on file with the MTA Business Service Center will be used to mail correspondence, including the Admission Letter.

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive Structured Interview test. You must achieve a score of at least 70 to pass the Structured Interview test. Your score on the Structured Interview test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the Structured Interview test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus $\frac{1}{2}$ point for each three months of completed, continuous service with an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services in permanent competitive class titles. Your service will be credited through the date of the Structured Interview test, up to a maximum of 15 years. Time served prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit will be granted only to eligible passing candidates who request that such credit be applied. Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit should be requested at the time of application, but must be requested before the date the eligible list is established. Claims for Veterans' or Disabled Veterans' Credit cannot be made once the eligible list is established.

The competitive Structured Interview test may include questions on: the maintenance, inspection, testing, repair, installation, and building of solid state computerized supervisory control systems, relays, meters, test instruments, logic and printed circuit boards modems, power conversion equipment and associated high-voltage and low-voltage equipment and circuits; MTA New York City Transit rules and regulations and safety, discipline and training procedures; the conduct of investigations and the preparation of reports; supervision of employees; and other related areas.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar-powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited.

Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait inside the test site while you are taking the test.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA New York City Transit employee identification card when you arrive to take the test.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you pass the Structured Interview test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.
