ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION

This examination is open to each employee of MTA Bus Company who on the first date of the multiple-choice test:

1. Is employed in the title of Maintainer's Helper; and/or
2. Is employed in the title of Cleaner/Maintainer's Helper and meets one of the following education and/or experience qualification requirements by the last day of the application period:
 - a. Two years of full-time satisfactory experience as a mechanic's helper, apprentice or trainee performing or assisting in the performance of automotive or aircraft maintenance and repair; or
 - b. Graduation from a recognized trade school or technical school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in automotive mechanics or a closely related field, totaling 600 hours; or
 - c. Graduation from a vocational high school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in automotive mechanics, or a closely related field; or
 - d. Graduation from an accredited college or university with an AAS degree or higher in automotive mechanics or a closely related field.
3. And is not otherwise ineligible.

NOTE: All applicants will be required to provide their education and experience when they apply online, and if applicable, have their foreign education submitted in accordance with the instructions below.

The following types of experience are not acceptable: Auto body mechanic's helper, tire repair and replacement, vehicle cleaning, automotive parts sales, exclusive lube or fuel servicing, specialty parts replacement (e.g. muffler, glass), sound system technician.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet, which will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted directly to NYC Transit's Examinations Unit by the service completing the evaluation. Foreign education evaluations received directly from applicants will not be accepted. You may also visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the Foreign Education Fact Sheet on our website.

Note: If you have earned a higher-level degree in the United States that supersedes the level and type of education required to meet the qualification requirements, you do not need to submit a foreign education evaluation. However, you must indicate that you have completed the higher-level degree in the United States; proof of acceptance into an academic program or school is not sufficient to determine satisfactory equivalency.

You are responsible for determining whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this examination prior to submitting the application. If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your department's Human Resources representative. You may be given the tests before we verify your eligibility. If you are marked "Not Eligible," your application fee will not be refunded, and you will not receive a score.

This examination is not open to employees of New York City Transit or MaBSTOA, or to employees of MTA agencies other than MTA Bus Company.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE PROMOTED

Probation Completed: At the time of promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility to Take Examination" section.

Driver License Requirement: If you are considered for promotion to the title of Bus Maintainer (Chassis), you must meet the requirements in "1" or "2" below at the time of promotion:

1. A Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement, no airbrake restrictions and no other disqualifying restrictions that would preclude the performance of the duties of this title; or
2. A Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York and a Learner Permit for a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement, no airbrake restrictions and no other disqualifying restrictions.

If you qualify under "2" above, your promotion will be subject to the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement, no airbrake restrictions and no other disqualifying restrictions within 120 days of promotion. You must complete a special training course in bus operation. If you fail to successfully complete the special training course in bus operation, including the receipt of a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with a passenger endorsement and no disqualifying restrictions, your employment will be terminated or you will be returned to your previously held title. If you have serious moving violations, a license suspension or an accident record, you may be disqualified.

The Class A or Class B Commercial Driver License (CDL) with a passenger endorsement and no airbrake restrictions or any other disqualifying restrictions must be maintained for the duration of your employment in the title. Such license and/or Learner Permit must not include any restrictions which would preclude the performance of Bus Maintainer (Chassis) work.

Commercial Motor Vehicle Driving Experience in the Military or New York National Guard: If you are an active member or former member (discharged in the past year) of the military or New York National Guard and have experience driving a Commercial Motor Vehicle in the military or New York National Guard, you may be eligible for a waiver of the New York State commercial driving skills test through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles. If you believe that you may be eligible for this waiver, you must apply for the waiver through the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Medical Requirement: Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Bus Maintainer (Chassis). Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position of Bus Maintainer (Chassis). Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable such person to take the examination and/or perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass a drug screening in order to be promoted, and if promoted, you will be subject to random drug and alcohol tests for the duration of your employment. Additionally, if you have tested positive on a drug or alcohol test or had a refusal to test during pre-employment or while employed by a Federal DOT-regulated employer during the applicable period, you must have completed the Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) evaluation, referral and education/treatment process required by federal law in order to be promoted to this safety-sensitive position.

Pre-Promotional Evaluation: All promotions are subject to pre-promotional evaluations.

HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

If you believe you meet the requirements in the “Eligibility to Take Examination” section, you may submit an application during the application period. The MTA Exam Information Center, located in the lobby of 180 Livingston Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, is currently closed. If you believe you have a special circumstance (e.g., a disability, military duty) that prevents you from applying as instructed below, please refer to the Special Circumstances Guide referenced in the “Special Arrangements” section below. Applications will not be accepted in person.

Online Applications:

1. If you are an active MTA employee, apply using the “BSC” employee portal at www.mymta.info by the last day of the application period (non-active MTA employees and applicants requesting a fee waiver must email us by the last day of the application period at examsunit@nyct.com for application instructions). Note: The application system may not function properly with mobile devices or tablets. For best results when applying, please use the latest version of Internet Explorer, open a new window, and avoid having multiple tabs open in the same window.
2. Once you have logged in, click on the My Job Search ribbon and then click on Exams (non-Railroad).
3. Follow the steps to submit an application.
4. Active MTA employees must pay the application fee via payroll deduction.
5. A confirmation number will appear on the same page after submitting your application and authorizing a payroll deduction (Save this number for future reference).

IMPORTANT: Your application submission confirms that you have read this Notice of Examination, including any dates and the requirements.

Application Fee: This fee is generally not refundable. Under special circumstances, you may be entitled to a refund. Please refer to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (“DCAS”) General Exam Regulation E.3.4 to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please visit http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm to access the DCAS General Exam Regulations online. Application fee refund requests, along with any relevant supporting documentation, should be emailed to examsmakeups@nyct.com or mailed to the address in the “Correspondence” section below.

ADMISSION LETTER

An Admission Letter will be mailed to you about 10 days before the first date of the multiple-choice and practical skills tests. If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before this date, you must email a request for a duplicate Admission Letter to examsunit@nyct.com. A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Applicants must keep their mailing address up to date. Please refer to the “Correspondence” section below for instructions on how to update your address and other contact information.

Application Period Opened: February 2, 2022

THE TEST

You will be given a competitive practical skills test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You will also be given a qualifying multiple-choice test. A score of at least 70% is required to pass the competitive practical skills test and qualifying multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test and practical skills test will be given in the same session. If you are called to the multiple-choice test, you may be given an opportunity to take the practical skills test on the same date on a conditional basis. You may be given the practical skills test before your multiple-choice test is officially rated. Your practical skills test will only be rated if you receive a passing score on the multiple-choice test. Your practical skills test will not be rated if you are found to have received a failing score on the multiple-choice test.

You will be assigned to a test date and location, and you cannot request that your scheduled test date or location be changed, unless you meet the conditions in the "Special Arrangements" section below.

Your score on the competitive practical skills test will determine 85% of your final score. Your seniority will determine the remaining 15%. You must pass the qualifying multiple-choice test and the competitive practical skills test to have your seniority credited. Your seniority score will be 70 plus 3 points for each year of service in MTA Bus Company or one of the private bus companies consolidated under MTA Bus Company to a maximum of 100 for 10 years or more of eligible service. Partial seniority credit will be given for each day served as an MTA Bus Company employee. Time serviced prior to a break in service of more than one year will not be credited.

The qualifying multiple-choice test may include questions on: the maintenance, troubleshooting and repair of buses, automobiles and trucks, including their engines, transmissions, running gears, air-conditioning, and electrical and mechanical accessories; proper selection and use of materials, machinery and tools of the trade; safe and efficient work practices; reading and interpreting specifications and drawings; related mathematical calculations; record keeping; and other related areas.

The competitive practical skills test may measure your ability to use tools; read schematics; install, repair, and adjust vehicle components in a safe manner; and troubleshoot and repair electrical components using meters and other equipment.

TEST ADMINISTRATION GUIDELINES

Warning: You are not permitted to enter the test site with cellular phones, smart watches, beepers, pagers, cameras, portable media players, or other electronic devices. Calculators are permitted; however, they must be hand-held, battery or solar powered, numeric only. Calculators with functions other than addition, subtraction, multiplication and division are prohibited. Electronic devices with an alphabetic keyboard or with word processing or data recording capabilities such as planners, organizers, etc. are prohibited. If you use any of these devices in the building at any time before, during or after the test, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Social Distancing and other safety protocols, including the wearing of masks, will be required during the administration of the test. Further details will be provided on your admission letter.

You may not have any other person, including children, present with you while you are being processed for or taking the test and no one may wait for you inside of the test site while you are taking the test.

Leaving: You must leave the test site once you finish the test. If you leave the test site after being fingerprinted but before finishing the test, you will not be permitted to re-enter. If you disregard this instruction and re-enter the test site, you may not receive your test results, your test score may be nullified, and your application fee will not be refunded.

Proof of Identity: You must present your MTA employee ID when you arrive to take the tests.

THE TEST RESULTS

If you pass the qualifying multiple-choice test and the competitive practical skills test and are marked eligible, your name will be placed in final score order on an eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. You will be considered for promotion when your name is reached on the eligible list.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Training: You may be required to undergo a formalized training course during your probationary period. Failure to successfully complete the training course may result in your return to your previous title or in your termination at the discretion of the MTA Bus Company.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Late Applications: Refer to the "Correspondence" section below to contact the Examinations Unit to determine the procedure for submitting a late application if you meet one of the following conditions:

1. You are absent from work for at least one-half of the application period and are unable to apply for reasons such as vacation, sick leave or military duty; or
2. You become eligible after the above application period, but before the first test date.

Special Test Accommodations: If you plan to request an alternate test date due to your religious observance or special testing accommodations due to disability, please follow the instructions included in the Special Circumstances Guide, which is accessible online at http://web.mta.info/nyct/hr/forms_instructions.htm and will be attached to this Notice of Examination during the application period. An alternate test date due to religious observance must be requested no later than 15 days prior to the date on which multiple-choice and practical skills testing is expected to begin. Special testing accommodations due to disability must be requested no later than 30 days prior to the date on which multiple-choice and practical skills testing is expected to begin.

Make-Up Tests: You may apply for a make-up test if you cannot take the multiple-choice and practical skills test as scheduled for any of the following reasons:

1. Compulsory attendance before a public body; or
2. On-the-job injury or illness caused by municipal employment where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
3. Absence from the test within one week after the death of a spouse, domestic partner, parent, sibling, child, or child of a domestic partner where you are an officer or employee of the City; or
4. Absence due to ordered military duty; or
5. A clear error for which MTA New York City Transit is responsible; or
6. A temporary disability, pregnancy-related, or child-birth related condition preventing you from taking the test.

To request a make-up test, submit your request with documentation of the special circumstances that caused you to miss your test (as attachments) by email to examsmakeups@nyct.com or by mail to the address in the "Correspondence" section below as soon as possible.
