Before Boarding Your Train

• Obey posted instructions if the platform is undergoing rehabilitation.
• Please safeguard your property, including your electronic devices.
• Never stand at the edge of a platform, or lean over a platform to see if your train is approaching.
• Keep an eye on your child while boarding at ticket offices and machines.
• Ticket purchases on board trains will cost more. To save money, buy before boarding at ticket offices and machines.
• Most LIRR trains have restrooms in every other car. These are always the odd-numbered cars. Do not use them.
• Luggage should be stored in overhead racks and not take up seat space or block the aisles or doors of trains. Luggage may not be prepackaged and things and bags are subject to searches by MTA police.

On Your Train
