

Queens Bus Network Redesign

Q & A Tour

Stop by an outdoor event at any time and talk about your commute with our team. Learn how we were building a better bus network for Queens.

Queens Public Library at Flushing on the plaza at Kissena Boulevard and Main Street
Tuesday, July 26
3 to 7 p.m.
Mandarin and Korean interpreters
will be available.

34 Avenue Open Street
Between 77 and 78 streets
outside of Travers Park
Thursday, August 4
3 to 7 p.m.
Spanish interpreters will be available.

Beach 97 Street at Shore Front Parkway
Wednesday, August 10
4 to 8 p.m.

Forest Park
Woodhaven Boulevard at Forest Park Drive
Tuesday, August 16
3 to 7 p.m.

Roy Wilkins Park
Outside Recreation Center
at Baisley Boulevard and 177 Street
Tuesday, August 23
4 to 8 p.m.

Language interpreters, including ASL, can be made available upon advance request no later than five business days before the event you want to attend. Please email gcr@nyct.com to request accommodations and include “QBNR accommodation request” in the subject.

All events are subject to rescheduling in the event of severe weather.

Please visit new.mta.info/queensbusredesign for the most up to date information.

