- excluded from a noteholder's federal gross income under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and
- not a specific preference item for a noteholder in calculating the federal alternative minimum tax, but
- included in the adjusted current earnings of certain corporations in calculating the federal corporate alternative minimum tax.

Also in Co-Bond Counsel's opinion, under existing law, interest on the Series 2017A Notes is exempt from personal income taxes of the State and any political subdivisions of the State, including the City. See "TAX MATTERS" herein for a discussion of certain federal and State income tax matters.

The Series 2017A Notes are not subject to redemption prior to maturity.

INTRODUCTION

MTA, MTA Bridges and Tunnels and Other Related Entities

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) was created by special New York State (the State) legislation in 1965, as a public benefit corporation, which means that it is a corporate entity separate and apart from the State, without any power of taxation – frequently called a "public authority." MTA is governed by board members appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the State Senate.

MTA has responsibility for developing and implementing a single, integrated mass transportation policy for MTA's service region (the MTA Commuter Transportation District or MCTD), which consists of New York City (the City) and the seven New York metropolitan-area counties of Dutchess, Nassau, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Suffolk and Westchester. It carries out some of those responsibilities by operating the Transit and Commuter Systems through its subsidiary and affiliate entities: the New York City Transit Authority and its subsidiary, the Manhattan and Bronx Surface Transit Operating Authority; the Staten Island Rapid Transit Operating Authority; The Long Island Rail Road Company; the Metro-North Commuter Railroad Company; the MTA Bus Company; and MTA Capital Construction Company. MTA issues debt obligations to finance a substantial portion of the capital costs of these systems.

Triborough Bridge and Tunnel Authority (MTA Bridges and Tunnels), another affiliate of MTA, is a public benefit corporation empowered to construct and operate toll bridges and tunnels and other public facilities in the City. MTA Bridges and Tunnels issues debt obligations to finance the capital costs of its facilities and the Transit and Commuter Systems. MTA Bridges and Tunnels' surplus amounts are used to fund certain transit and commuter operations and capital projects.

The board members of MTA serve as the board members of MTA's affiliates and subsidiaries, which, together with MTA, are referred to herein as the Related Entities. MTA and the other Related Entities are described in detail in Part I - MTA Annual Disclosure Statement to MTA's 2016 Combined Continuing Disclosure Filings (the MTA Annual Disclosure Statement or ADS), which is included by specific crossreference in this offering memorandum.

The following table sets forth the legal and popular names of the Related Entities. Throughout this offering memorandum, reference to each agency will be made using the popular names.

No Redemption Prior to Maturity

The Series 2017A Notes are not subject to redemption prior to maturity.

SECURITY FOR THE SERIES 2017A NOTES

The Series 2017A Notes are bond anticipation notes issued pursuant to the Transportation Resolution and the Multiple Series 2017 Bond Anticipation Notes and Related Subordinated Indebtedness Transportation Revenue Bond Supplemental Resolution adopted by MTA on December 14, 2016 (the BAN Resolution) in anticipation of an issue of Transportation Revenue Bonds to be designated as the Series A Bonds.

Principal of and interest on the Series 2017A Notes are payable solely from (1) the proceeds of other notes, (2) the proceeds of the Series A Bonds, authorized pursuant to the Multiple Series 2017 Transportation Revenue Bond Supplemental Resolution adopted by MTA on December 14, 2016, and (3) with respect to interest payable on the Series 2017A Notes, amounts available for payment of subordinated indebtedness. The Series 2017A Notes are not secured by any other funds, accounts or amounts that are pledged to the payment of bonds or parity obligations issued under the Resolution.

The Issuer covenants in the BAN Resolution to maintain issuance capacity pursuant to the Transportation Resolution to issue the Series A Bonds or additional bond anticipation notes in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the Series 2017A Notes when due.

Figures reflect amounts outstanding as of the date of this Offering Memorandum.

PART II. SOURCES OF PAYMENT AND SECURITY FOR BONDS

Part II of this offering memorandum describes the sources of payment and security for all Bonds. The following discussion describes the security for a future series of bonds, the Series A Bonds. In connection with the payment of the Series 2017A Notes as described above, the Series A Bonds are the primary source of the security for the Series 2017A Notes.

SOURCES OF PAYMENT

Pledged Transportation Revenues

Under State law, the Transportation Revenue Bonds are MTA's special obligations, which means that they are payable solely from the money pledged for payment under the "General Resolution Authorizing Transportation Revenue Obligations," adopted March 26, 2002 (referred to herein as the Transportation Resolution). They are not MTA's general obligations. Summaries of certain provisions of the Transportation Resolution and the form of the Interagency Agreement have been filed with the MSRB through EMMA as described under "INTRODUCTION – Where to Find Information."

MTA receives "transportation revenues" directly and through certain subsidiaries (currently, MTA Long Island Rail Road, MTA Metro-North Railroad and MTA Bus) and affiliates (currently, MTA New York City Transit and MaBSTOA), and its receipts from many of these sources are pledged for the payment of Transportation Revenue Bonds. MTA and its subsidiaries also receive operating subsidies from MTA Bridges and Tunnels and a number of other governmental sources. The Transportation Resolution provides that Owners are to be paid from pledged revenues prior to the payment of operating or other expenses, and as described in more detail below. MTA has covenanted to impose fares and other charges so that pledged revenues, together with other available moneys, will be sufficient to cover all debt service and operating and capital costs of the systems. See "Factors Affecting Revenues – Ability to Comply with Rate Covenant and Pay Operating and Maintenance Expenses" below.

Table 2 sets forth the following for the five years ended December 31, 2015:

- by general category, the amount of pledged revenues (calculated in accordance with the Transportation Resolution). A general description of the pledged revenues in the general categories referenced in Table 2 follows the table, and a more detailed description is set forth in Part 2 of the ADS under the caption "REVENUES OF THE RELATED ENTITIES," and
- the amount of transit, commuter and MTA Bus operating expenses.

Table 2 is a summary of historical revenues of MTA and its subsidiaries, MTA Long Island Rail Road, MTA Metro-North Railroad and MTA Bus, and MTA New York City Transit and its subsidiary MaBSTOA on a cash basis. This information in Table 2 may not be indicative of future results of operations and financial condition. The information contained in the table has been prepared by MTA management based upon the historical financial statements and the notes thereto.

Other income in the case of the Transit System includes advertising revenue, interest income on certain operating funds, station concessions, Transit Adjudication Bureau collections, rental income and miscellaneous. Other income in the case of the Commuter System includes advertising revenues, interest income on certain operating funds, concession revenues (excluding Grand Central Terminal and Pennsylvania Station concessions), rental income and miscellaneous. Does not include Superstorm Sandy reimbursement funds.

<sup>(3) 2012, 2013, 2014</sup> and 2015 Payroll Mobility Tax Receipts include PMT Revenue Offsets of $211 million, $307 million, $309 million and $309 million, respectively.

<sup>(4)</sup> Represents investment income on capital program funds held for the benefit of the Transit and Commuter Systems on an accrual basis.

<sup>(5)</sup> Sum of (a) Revenues from MTA Bridges and Tunnels Surplus, (b) Revenues from Governmental Sources (including State and Local General Operating Subsidies and Special Tax-Supported Operating Subsidies), (c) Station Maintenance and Service Reimbursements, (d) City Subsidy for MTA Bus and (e) Revenues from Investment of Capital Program Funds.

<sup>6)</sup> Debt Service was reduced by approximately $56 million in 2011, $59 million in 2012, and $54 million in each of 2013, 2014 and 2015 to reflect Build America Bonds interest credit payments relating to certain outstanding bonds. Such payments do not constitute Pledged Revenues under the Transportation Resolution. 2013 Debt Service reflects a cash defeasance of $57.9 million done in December of 2013.

The following should be additionally noted in Table 2:

- Decrease in Other Income in 2015 by $22 million derived from a decrease of $34 million from MTA New York City Transit mainly due to a deferred paratransit reimbursement and school subsidy, offset by an increase of $12 million from the Commuter System.
- MTA receives monthly payments beginning in May of MMTOA Receipts, with the first quarter of the State's appropriation for the succeeding year advanced into the fourth quarter of MTA's calendar year. MTA continues to monitor the effect of not having MMTOA Receipts available during the first quarter of the calendar year to determine if working capital borrowings may be necessary for cash flow needs. MTA has not borrowed for working capital since 2010. MMTOA Receipts increased in each year during the 2011-2014 period due to a more stable economy in accordance with the State's appropriation. In 2015, MMTOA Receipts remained at the same level as in 2014.
- "Urban Tax" collection reflects the activity level of certain commercial real estate transactions in the City. For the past four years, Urban Tax revenues increased due to improvements in commercial real estate transactions in the City.
- Mortgage Recording Taxes (MRT) consist of two separate taxes: MRT-1, which is imposed on borrowers of recorded mortgages of real property; and MRT-2, which is a tax imposed on the institutional lender. These taxes are collected by the City and the seven other counties within MTA's service area. MRT are used for Transit and Commuter Systems purposes after the payment of MTA Headquarters' expenses and MTA Bus debt service (beginning in 2009). Since 2009, due to declining mortgage recording tax receipts and increasing MTA Headquarters expenses, there have been no Excess Mortgage Recording Tax transfers to the Transit and Commuter Systems after payment of MTA Bus debt service of $25 million annually.
- DTF Excess decreased in 2012 and 2013 due to lower MTTF Receipts and higher DTF debt service expenses. In 2014, there was an increase in DTF Excess due to higher MTTF Receipts, and 2015 remained at the same levels as the previous year.
- Revenues from Investment of Capital Program Funds substantially all of the investment income is generated from bond proceeds, such as funds held in anticipation of expenditure on project costs.
- The increase in Transit Operating Expenses in 2012 was largely due to increases in pension costs from NYCERS and Superstorm Sandy related expenses. In 2013, Transit Operating Expenses were nearly flat with an increase of only 0.2%.
- In 2014, increases in Total Operating Expenses resulted predominantly from union contracts settlements. The Total Operating Expenses in 2015 were higher than 2013 as a result of higher wages from union contract settlements, but lower than 2014, which included retroactive payments.

Table 3 sets forth the Summary of 2016 November Forecast and 2017 Final Proposed Budget based on the 2016 MTA November Financial Plan adopted by the Board of MTA on December 14, 2016. The information set forth in Table 3 is comparable to that set forth in Table 2 with respect to the years 2011-2015.

The data set forth on Table 3 has not been modified to incorporate proposals for State assistance to MTA contained in the Governor's Executive Budget for the State fiscal year beginning April 1, 2017. Such proposals remain subject to future negotiation and enactment by the State Legislature and the Governor. The November Plan is expected to be adjusted to reflect certain of such State budget proposals in MTA's 2017 February Financial Plan to be presented to the MTA Board at its February meeting, as discussed in Attachment 4 – "Supplement to the 2016 MTA Annual Disclosure Statement".

Net of annual Build America Bond interest credit payments on previously issued bonds of approximately $54.6 million in each of 2016 and 2017. Such payments do not constitute pledged revenues under the Transportation Resolution.

(7) Calculated by subtracting MRT-1 and MRT-2 Revenues from Headquarters Expenses. Reflects consolidation at Headquarters of certain administrative functions previously carried as operating expenses of the agencies.

SOURCES OF PAYMENT AND SECURITY FOR THE BONDS – SOURCES OF PAYMENT – Description of Pledged Revenues –Additional Taxes and Fees" for a discussion of certain recent legislative changes affecting future Payroll Mobility Tax Receipts. Payroll Mobility Tax Receipts include PMT Revenue Offsets of $311.3 million in each of 2016 and 2017.

Description of Pledged Revenues

Each of the following revenues is described in more detail in Part 2 of the ADS under the caption "REVENUES OF THE RELATED ENTITIES." See also Tables 2 and 3 above for both historical and forecasted results for each category of Pledged Revenues described below.

Revenues from Systems Operations.

• Fares from the Transit and Commuter Systems. On January 25, 2017, the MTA Board approved transit and commuter fare increases that are expected to go into effect on March 19, 2017.

The base subway, local bus and paratransit fares will remain unchanged at $2.75 per trip and the base express bus fare will remain unchanged at $6.50 per trip. The Pay-Per-Ride MetroCard bonus decreased from 11% to 5%, and the minimum purchase price to receive the bonus remains at $5.50. Single ride subway and bus tickets will remain unchanged at $3.00. MTA New York City Transit increased the cost of 30-day and calendar monthly unlimited ride MetroCards from $116.50 to $121, the cost of a 7-day unlimited ride MetroCard from $31 to $32, and the 7-day Express Bus Plus unlimited ride MetroCard from $57.25 to $59.50.

At MTA Metro-North Railroad and MTA Long Island Rail Road, all weekly and monthly passes are expected to increase 3.75% or less, and monthly tickets no more than $15. One way tickets are expected to have a range of increases due to the need for fares to round to $0.25 increments. Oneway fares into New York City are expected to have a range of increases up to 6.45%. Other ticket types such as intermediates, half fares and other discounted tickets may have larger increases up to 10%, again due to the need to round to $0.25 increments on a low ticket price. For these oneway fares, any increase greater than 6.0% would be not more than $0.50 per ride. Increased fares also apply to UniTickets and MNR-managed connecting services. CityTicket remains unchanged at $4.25.

• Other Income. MTA receives revenues from concessions to vendors and from advertising and other space it rents in subway and commuter rail cars, buses, stations and other facilities. Concession revenues from Grand Central Terminal (the main station for MTA Metro-North Railroad) and Pennsylvania Station (the main station for MTA Long Island Rail Road), however, are not included within these amounts pledged.

Revenues from MTA Bridges and Tunnels Surplus. MTA Bridges and Tunnels is required by law to transfer its annual operating surpluses (generally, tolls and other operating revenues from bridges and tunnels after payment of operating expenses and debt service costs) to MTA, and a statutory formula determines how MTA allocates that money between the Transit and Commuter Systems.

On January 25, 2017, the MTA Bridges and Tunnels Board approved toll increases that are expected to go into effect on March 19, 2017, as follows:

- Cash/Tolls by Mail for Passenger Vehicles. Toll rates for fare media other than New York Customer Service Center (NYCSC) E-ZPass (which includes cash, Tolls by Mail and non-NYCSC E-ZPass) were increased by $0.50 at the Robert F. Kennedy, Bronx-Whitestone and Throgs Neck Bridges and Queens Midtown and Hugh L. Carey Tunnels (the major facilities) to $8.50, by $1.00 at the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge (the VNB) (where tolls are collected in the westbound direction only) to $17.00, by $0.50 at the Henry Hudson Bridge to $6.00, and by $0.25 at the Marine Parkway-Gil Hodges and Cross Bay Veterans Memorial Bridges (the Rockaway Bridges) to $4.25. Commercial vehicle tolls also increased.
- E-ZPass Tolls. E-ZPass tolls for passenger vehicles using tags issued by the NYCSC increased by $0.22 at major facilities, $0.44 at the VNB, $0.10 at the Henry Hudson Bridge and $0.08 at the Rockaway Bridges.

Revenues from State and Local Governmental Sources.

The description of revenues derived from State sources in this heading has not been modified to incorporate proposals for State assistance to MTA contained in the Governor's Executive Budget for the State fiscal year beginning April 1, 2017. Such proposals remain subject to future negotiation and enactment by the State Legislature and the Governor. The November Plan is expected to be adjusted to reflect certain of such State budget proposals in MTA's 2017 February Financial Plan to be presented to the MTA Board at its February meeting, as discussed in Attachment 4 – "Supplement to the 2016 MTA Annual Disclosure Statement."

- General Operating Subsidies from the State and Local Governments. Under the State's Section 18-b program, MTA receives:
  - o subsidies for the Transit System from the State and matching subsidies from the City, and
  - o subsidies for the Commuter System from the State and matching subsidies from the City and the seven counties within the MCTD.
- Special Tax-Supported Operating Subsidies. MTA receives subsidies from a number of sources including:
  - o portions of the following dedicated taxes pledged but not ultimately needed to pay debt service on MTA's Dedicated Tax Fund bonds:
    - a group of business privilege taxes imposed on petroleum businesses operating in the State, referred to as the PBT,
    - motor fuel taxes on gasoline and diesel fuel, and
    - certain motor vehicle fees administered by the State Department of Motor Vehicles, including both registration and non-registration fees; and
  - o portions of the following mass transportation operating assistance or MMTOA taxes, which State law requires first be used to pay debt service on MTA's Dedicated Tax Fund bonds if the dedicated taxes described above are insufficient:
    - the regional PBT (in addition to the State-wide portion described above), which is referred to as the MMTOA PBT,
    - the sales and compensating use tax within the MCTD,
    - two franchise taxes imposed on certain transportation and transmission companies, and
    - a surcharge on a portion of the franchise tax imposed on certain corporations, banks, insurance, utility and transportation companies attributable to business activities within the MCTD; and
    - o a portion of the amounts collected by the City for the benefit of the Transit System from certain mortgage transfer and recording taxes.

Additional Taxes and Fees. On May 7, 2009, legislation was enacted in the State (the May 2009 Legislation) providing additional sources of revenues in the form of taxes, fees and surcharges to address the financial needs of MTA. The May 2009 Legislation (Chapter 25 of the Laws of 2009) among other things:

• imposed a payroll mobility tax (the PMT) of 0.34% on payroll expenses and net earnings from self-employment within the MCTD (effective as of March 1, 2009, except school districts, effective September 1, 2009);

- imposed a supplemental fee of one dollar for each six-month period of validity of a learner's permit or a driver's license issued to a person residing in the MCTD (effective September 1, 2009);
- imposed a supplemental fee of twenty-five dollars per year on the registration and renewals of registrants of motor vehicles who reside within the MCTD (effective September 1, 2009);
- imposed on taxicab owners a tax of fifty cents per ride on taxicab rides originating in the City and terminating within the MCTD (effective November 1, 2009); and
- imposed a supplemental tax of five percent of the cost of rentals of automobiles rented within the MCTD (effective June 1, 2009).

On December 9, 2011, Governor Andrew Cuomo signed into law legislation (the December 2011 Legislation) that made significant changes to the PMT eliminating or reducing the PMT imposed within the MCTD for certain taxpayers. Employers with payroll expense less than or equal to $312,500 in any calendar quarter, any public school district, a board of cooperative educational services, a public elementary or secondary school, a school serving students with disabilities of school age and any nonpublic elementary or secondary school that provides instruction in grade one or above are no longer required to pay the PMT, as of the quarter beginning April 1, 2012. In addition, individuals with net earnings from self-employment attributable to the MCTD that do not exceed $50,000 for the tax year are no longer subject to the PMT. Employers with payroll expense no greater than $375,000 in any calendar quarter are subject to a reduced tax rate of 0.11%; employers with payroll expense greater than $375,000 but not greater than $437,500 in any calendar quarter are subject to a reduced tax rate of 0.23%. Employers with payroll expense in excess of $437,500 in any calendar quarter will continue to pay a tax rate of 0.34%. The employer rate changes became effective beginning April 1, 2012.

The December 2011 Legislation further expressly provided that any reductions in aid to MTA attributable to these reductions in the payroll mobility tax "shall be offset through alternative sources that will be included in the state budget" (the PMT Revenue Offset).

The 2015-2016 State Enacted Budget included an amendment to the PMT legislation to eliminate the PMT for all public library systems as well as public and free association libraries. This change applies to taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 2016. Based on a preliminary review by the New York State Division of the Budget, PMT revenue is projected to decline by $2 million per year. The 2016-2017 State Enacted Budget also includes an appropriation of $311 million to MTA for the PMT Revenue Offset.

The revenues from the PMT (the PMT Revenues) can be: (i) pledged by MTA to secure and be applied to the payment of bonds to be issued in the future to fund capital projects of MTA, its subsidiaries, and MTA New York City Transit and its subsidiary and (ii) used by MTA to pay capital costs, including debt service of MTA, its subsidiaries and MTA New York City Transit and its subsidiary. Subject to the provisions of any such pledge, or in the event there is no such pledge, the PMT Revenues can be used by MTA to pay for costs, including operating costs of MTA, its subsidiaries and MTA New York City Transit and its subsidiary. Under the Transportation Resolution, the PMT Revenues constitute "Operating Subsidies" that are pledged to the payment of principal of and interest on the Transportation Revenue Bonds to the extent not required to be applied to the payment of debt service on bonds issued in the future by MTA that are secured in whole or in part by the PMT Revenues.

The revenues from other taxes and fees imposed by the May 2009 Legislation (the Aid Trust Account Monies) may be pledged by MTA or pledged to MTA Bridges and Tunnels to secure debt of MTA or MTA Bridges and Tunnels. Subject to the provisions of such pledge, or in the event there is no such pledge, such revenues can be used by MTA for the payment of operating and capital costs of MTA, its subsidiaries and MTA New York City Transit and its subsidiary as MTA shall determine. Under the Transportation Resolution, the Aid Trust Account Monies constitute "Non-Pledged Operating Subsidies" that are not pledged to the payment of principal of and interest on the Transportation Revenue Bonds, unless and until and to the extent MTA allocates such moneys to the payment of debt service on the Transportation Revenue Bonds or Operating and Maintenance Expenses. Although MTA has allocated such monies so as to constitute Pledged Revenues in prior years, no assurances can be given that MTA will allocate any of the Aid Trust Account Monies to the payment of debt service on the Transportation Revenue Bonds or Operating and Maintenance Expenses in the future.

MTA anticipates establishing a new credit secured in whole or in part by the PMT Revenues and the Aid Trust Account Monies. Such pledge would reduce the amounts of PMT Revenues and Aid Trust Account Monies available to constitute Operating Subsidies.

MTA currently expects that, unless and until amounts constituting the PMT Revenue Offset are pledged as part of the security for the new credit secured in whole or in part by PMT Revenues, such amounts would be treated as "Operating Subsidies" pledged to the payment of principal and interest on the Transportation Revenue Bonds.

Station Maintenance and Service Reimbursements. MTA is reimbursed by the City and the seven counties in the MCTD with respect to commuter stations located in each respective jurisdiction for the cost of staffing the stations, maintaining the stations and appurtenant land and buildings, and insurance. In addition, the City provides for the policing of the Transit System and contributes to support MTA New York City Transit's paratransit, senior citizen and school children programs. Also, MTA Metro-North Railroad receives certain payments from the Connecticut Department of Transportation (CDOT) for its share of the operating deficits of the New Haven rail line.

City Agreement with MTA Bus. In December 2004, the MTA Board approved a letter agreement with the City (the MTA Bus Letter Agreement) with respect to MTA Bus' establishment and operation of certain bus routes (the MTA Bus System) in areas then served by seven private bus companies pursuant to franchises granted by the City. The City's payments under the MTA Bus Letter Agreement are pledged to holders of the Transportation Revenue Bonds and are reflected in Tables 2 and 3 above. The MTA Bus Letter Agreement with the City provides for the following:

- A lease by the City to MTA Bus of the bus assets to operate the MTA Bus System.
- The City agrees to pay MTA Bus the difference between the actual cost of operation of the MTA Bus System (other than certain capital costs) and all revenues and subsidies received by MTA Bus and allocable to the operation of the MTA Bus System.
- If the City fails to timely pay any of the subsidy amounts due for a period of 30 days, MTA Bus has the right, after an additional 10 days, to curtail, suspend or eliminate service and may elect to terminate the agreement. The City can terminate the agreement on one year's notice.

Revenues from Investment Income and Miscellaneous. MTA earns income, as do its subsidiaries and affiliates, from the temporary investment of money held in those of MTA's various funds and accounts that are pledged to holders of Transportation Revenue Bonds.

Factors Affecting Revenues

Ridership. The level of fare revenues depends to a large extent on MTA's ability to maintain and/or increase ridership levels on the Transit, Commuter and MTA Bus Systems. Those ridership levels are affected by safety and the quality and efficiency of systems operations, as well as by financial and economic conditions in the New York metropolitan area.

Fare Policy. MTA determines the rate or rates of fares charged to users of the Commuter System and MTA Bus System, and MTA New York City Transit and MaBSTOA, together with MTA, do the same for the Transit System. After adopting operating expense budgets and assessing the availability of governmental subsidies, each makes a determination of fares necessary to operate on a self-sustaining cash basis in compliance with State law and covenants in the Transportation Resolution. Considering the impact of increased fares on riders and on the regional economy, MTA may attempt to reduce costs or obtain additional revenues from other sources, mainly governmental sources, before increasing fares. As a result, even though MTA does not generally need other governmental approvals before setting fares, the amount and timing of fare increases may be affected by the federal, State and local government financial conditions, as well as by budgetary and legislative processes. MTA's obligation to obtain approval of fare increases on the New Haven line from CDOT can also affect the amount and timing of fare increases.

Ability to Comply with Rate Covenant and Pay Operating and Maintenance Expenses. The Transit, Commuter and MTA Bus Systems have depended, and are expected to continue to depend, upon government subsidies to meet capital and operating needs. Thus, although MTA is legally obligated by the Transportation Resolution's rate covenant to raise fares sufficiently to cover all capital and operating costs, there can be no assurance that there is any level at which Transit, Commuter and MTA Bus Systems fares alone would produce revenues sufficient to comply with the rate covenant, particularly if the current level (or the assumed level in the budget prepared in connection with 2016 and the forecasts prepared in connection with 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020) of collection of dedicated taxes, operating subsidies, and expense reimbursements were to be discontinued or substantially reduced.

Operating Results and Projections. Based upon the November Financial Plan 2017-2020, the budgets of the Related Entities are expected to be substantially in balance through 2019, but there is a projected deficit in 2020. Any of the Transit System, the Commuter System or MTA Bus System or all of them may be forced to institute additional cost reductions (which, in certain circumstances, could affect service which, in turn, could adversely affect revenues) or take other additional actions to close projected budget gaps, which could include additional fare increases.

Financial Plans. The November Financial Plan 2017-2020, the 2010-2014 Capital Program, the 2015-2019 Capital Program and prior and future Capital Programs are interrelated, and any failure to fully achieve the various components of these plans could have an adverse impact on one or more of the other proposals contained in the November Financial Plan 2017-2020, the 2010-2014 Capital Program, the 2015-2019 Capital Program and prior and future Capital Programs, as well as on pledged revenues.

MTA Bridges and Tunnels Operating Surplus. The amount of MTA Bridges and Tunnels operating surplus to be used for the Transit and Commuter Systems is affected by a number of factors, including traffic volume, the timing and amount of toll increases, the operating and capital costs of MTA Bridges and Tunnels Facilities, and the amount of debt service payable from its operating revenues, including debt service on obligations issued for the benefit of MTA's affiliates and subsidiaries and for MTA Bridges and Tunnels' own capital needs.

Government Assistance. The level and timing of government assistance to MTA may be affected by several different factors, such as:

- Subsidy payments by the State may be made only if and to the extent that appropriations have been made by the Legislature and money is available to fund those appropriations.
- The Legislature may not bind or obligate itself to appropriate revenues during a future legislative session, and appropriations approved during a particular legislative session generally have no force or effect after the close of the State fiscal year for which the appropriations are made.
- The State is not bound or obligated to continue to pay operating subsidies to the Transit, Commuter or MTA Bus Systems or to continue to impose any of the taxes currently funding those subsidies.

- The financial condition of the State and the State of Connecticut, and the City and counties in the MCTD could affect the ability or willingness of the States and local governments to continue to provide general operating subsidies, the City and local governments to continue to provide reimbursements and station maintenance payments, and the State to continue to make special appropriations.
- Court challenges to the State taxes that are the sources of various State and City operating subsidies to MTA, if successful, could adversely affect the amount of pledged revenues generated by such State taxes.

Information Relating to the State. Information relating to the State, including the Annual Information Statement of the State, as amended or supplemented, is not a part of this offering memorandum. Such information is on file with MSRB through EMMA with which the State was required to file, and the State has committed to update that information to the holders of its general obligation bonds in the manner specified in SEC Rule 15c2-12. Prospective purchasers of the Transportation Revenue Bonds wishing to obtain that information may refer to those filings regarding currently available information about the State. The State has not obligated itself to provide continuing disclosure in connection with the offering of the Transportation Revenue Bonds or the Series 2017A Notes. MTA makes no representations about State information or its continued availability.

SECURITY FOR THE SERIES A BONDS

General

The Transportation Revenue Bonds, including the Series A Bonds, are MTA's special obligations payable as to principal (including sinking fund installments), redemption premium, if any, and interest from the security, sources of payment, and funds specified in the Transportation Resolution.

- The payment of principal (including sinking fund installments, if any), redemption premium, if any, and interest on Transportation Revenue Bonds is secured by, among other sources described below, the transportation revenues discussed in the preceding section "SOURCES OF PAYMENT," which are, together with certain other revenues, referred to as "pledged revenues."
- Holders of Transportation Revenue Bonds are to be paid prior to the payment, from pledged revenues, of operating or other expenses of MTA, MTA New York City Transit, MaBSTOA, MTA Long Island Rail Road, MTA Metro-North Railroad and MTA Bus. However, MTA's ability to generate major portions of the pledged revenues depends upon its payment of operating and other expenses.
- Transportation Revenue Bonds are not a debt of the State or the City, or any other local governmental unit.
- MTA has no taxing power.

Summaries of certain provisions of the Transportation Resolution and the form of the Interagency Agreement have been filed with the MSRB through EMMA. See "INTRODUCTION – Where to Find Information."

Pledge Effected by the Resolution

The Transportation Resolution provides that there are pledged to the payment of principal and redemption premium of, interest on, and sinking fund installments for, the Transportation Revenue Bonds and Parity Debt, in accordance with their terms and the provisions of the Transportation Resolution the following, referred to as the "trust estate":

- all pledged revenues as described above;
- the net proceeds of certain agreements pledged by MTA to the payment of transit and commuter capital projects;
- the proceeds from the sale of Transportation Revenue Bonds, until those proceeds are paid out for an authorized purpose;
- all funds, accounts and subaccounts established by the Transportation Resolution (except those established by a supplemental obligation resolution for variable interest rate obligations, put obligations, parity debt, subordinated contract obligations or subordinated debt); and
- the Amended and Restated Interagency Agreement dated as of April 1, 2006, among MTA, MTA Long Island Rail Road, MTA Metro-North Railroad, MTA New York City Transit, MaBSTOA and MTA Bus.

The Trustee may directly enforce an undertaking to operate the Transit System, the Commuter System or the MTA Bus System to ensure compliance with the Transportation Resolution.

Under the Transportation Resolution, the operators of the Transit, Commuter and MTA Bus Systems are obligated to transfer to the Trustee for deposit into the Revenue Fund virtually all pledged revenues as soon as practicable following receipt or, with respect to revenues in the form of cash and coin, immediately after being counted and verified. The pledge of money located in the State of Connecticut may not be effective until that money is deposited under the Transportation Resolution.

Flow of Revenues

The Transportation Resolution creates the following funds and accounts:

- Revenue Fund (held by the Trustee),
- Debt Service Fund (held by the Trustee), and
- Proceeds Fund (held by MTA).

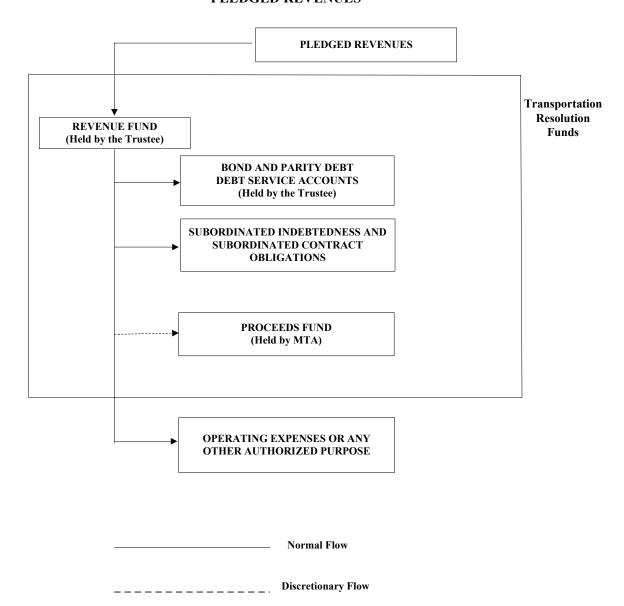

The Transportation Resolution requires the Trustee, promptly upon receipt of the pledged revenues in the Revenue Fund, to deposit the revenues into the following funds and accounts, in the amounts and in the order of priority, as follows:

- to the debt service accounts, the net amount, if any, required to make the amount in the debt service accounts equal to the accrued debt service for Transportation Revenue Bonds and Parity Debt to the last day of the current calendar month;
- to pay, or accrue to pay, principal of and interest on any Subordinated Indebtedness or for payment of amounts due under any Subordinated Contract Obligation;
- to MTA for deposit in the Proceeds Fund, as directed by one of MTA's authorized officers, to fund Capital Costs of the Transit, Commuter and MTA Bus Systems; and
- to accounts held by MTA or any of the Related Transportation Entities for payment of operating expenses or any other authorized purpose.

All amounts paid out by MTA or the Trustee either for an authorized purpose (excluding transfers to any other pledged fund or account) or under the last bullet point above are free and clear of the lien and pledge created by the Transportation Resolution.

Covenants

Rate Covenants. MTA must fix the transit and commuter fares and other charges and fees to be sufficient, together with other money legally available or expected to be available, including from government subsidies –

- to pay the debt service on all the Transportation Revenue Bonds;
- to pay any Parity Debt;
- to pay any Subordinated Indebtedness and amounts due on any Subordinated Contract Obligations; and
- to pay, when due, all operating and maintenance expenses and other obligations of its transit and commuter affiliates and subsidiaries.

See "SOURCES OF PAYMENT – Factors Affecting Revenues" above.

Operating and Maintenance Covenants.

- MTA, MaBSTOA, MTA New York City Transit, MTA Metro-North Railroad, MTA Long Island Rail Road and MTA Bus are required at all times to operate, or cause to be operated, the systems properly and in a sound and economical manner and maintain, preserve, reconstruct and keep the same or cause the same to be maintained, preserved, reconstructed and kept in good repair, working order and condition.
- Nothing in the Transportation Resolution prevents MTA from ceasing to operate or maintain, or from leasing or disposing of, all or any portion of the systems if, in MTA's judgment it is advisable to do so, but only if the operation is not essential to the maintenance and continued operation of the rest of the systems and this arrangement does not materially interfere with MTA's ability to comply with MTA's rate covenants.

Additional Bonds. The Transportation Resolution permits MTA to issue additional Transportation Revenue Bonds and to issue or enter into Parity Debt, from time to time, to pay or provide for the payment of qualifying costs, without meeting any specific debt-service-coverage level, as long as MTA certifies to meeting the rate covenant described above for the year in which the additional debt is being issued. Under the Transportation Resolution, MTA may only issue additional Transportation Revenue Bonds if those bonds are issued to fund projects pursuant to an approved MTA Capital Program, if an approved capital program is then required.

There is no covenant with Owners limiting the aggregate principal amount of additional Transportation Revenue Bonds or Parity Debt that MTA may issue. There is a limit under current State law that covers the Transportation Revenue Bonds and certain other securities. See Part 3 of the ADS under the caption "GENERAL – Financing of Capital Projects and Statutory Ceiling" for a description of the current statutory cap.

Refunding Bonds. MTA may issue Transportation Revenue Bonds to refund all or any portion of the Transportation Revenue Bonds or Parity Debt. Transportation Revenue Bonds may also be issued to refund any pre-existing indebtedness of any Related Entity issued to fund transit and commuter projects. The MTA Board has adopted a refunding policy which must be complied with prior to the issuance of any refunding Bonds.

Non-Impairment. Under State law, the State has pledged to MTA that it will not limit or change MTA's powers or rights in such a way that would impair the fulfillment of MTA's promises to holders of the Transportation Revenue Bonds.

No Bankruptcy. State law specifically prohibits MTA, its Transit System affiliates, its Commuter System subsidiaries or MTA Bus from filing a bankruptcy petition under Chapter 9 of the U.S. Federal Bankruptcy Code. As long as any Transportation Revenue Bonds are outstanding, the State has covenanted not to change the law to permit MTA or its affiliates or subsidiaries to file such a petition. Chapter 9 does not provide authority for creditors to file involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against MTA or other Related Entities.

Parity Debt

MTA may incur Parity Debt pursuant to the terms of the Transportation Resolution that, subject to certain exceptions, would be secured by a pledge of, and a lien on, the Trust Estate on a parity with the lien created by the Transportation Resolution with respect to Transportation Revenue Bonds. Parity Debt may be incurred in the form of a Parity Reimbursement Obligation, a Parity Swap Obligation or any other contract, agreement or other obligation of MTA designated as constituting "Parity Debt" in a certificate of an Authorized Officer delivered to the Trustee.

PART III. OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE SERIES 2017A NOTES

Part III of this offering memorandum provides miscellaneous additional information relating to the Series 2017A Notes.

TAX MATTERS

General

Nixon Peabody LLP and D. Seaton and Associates, P.A., P.C. are Co-Bond Counsel for the Series 2017A Notes. Each Co-Bond Counsel is of the opinion that, under existing law, relying on certain statements by MTA and assuming compliance by MTA with certain covenants, interest on the Series 2017A Notes is:

- excluded from a noteholder's federal gross income under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and
- not a specific preference item for a noteholder in calculating the federal alternative minimum tax, but
- included in the adjusted current earnings of certain corporations in calculating the federal corporate alternative minimum tax.

Each Co-Bond Counsel is also of the opinion that, under existing law, interest on the Series 2017A Notes is exempt from personal income taxes of the State and any political subdivisions of the State, including the City. See Attachment 3 to this offering memorandum for the form of the opinions that Co-Bond Counsel each expect to deliver when the Series 2017A Notes are delivered.

The Series 2017A Notes

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986 imposes requirements on the Series 2017A Notes that MTA must continue to meet after the Series 2017A Notes are issued. These requirements generally involve the way that Series 2017A Note proceeds must be invested and ultimately used, and the way that assets financed and refinanced with proceeds of the Series 2017A Notes must be used. If MTA does not meet these requirements, it is possible that a noteholder may have to include interest on the Series 2017A Notes in its federal gross income on a retroactive basis to the date of issue. MTA has covenanted to do everything necessary to meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

A noteholder who is a particular kind of taxpayer may also have additional tax consequences from owning the Series 2017A Notes. This is possible if a noteholder is:

- an S corporation,
- a United States branch of a foreign corporation,
- a financial institution,
- a property and casualty or a life insurance company,
- an individual receiving Social Security or railroad retirement benefits,
- an individual claiming the earned income credit, or
- a borrower of money to purchase or carry the Series 2017A Notes.

Prospective holders, particularly those in any of these categories, should consult their tax advisors.

Co-Bond Counsel are not responsible for updating their respective opinions in the future. It is possible that future events could change the tax treatment of the interest on the Series 2017A Notes or affect the market price of the Series 2017A Notes. See also "Miscellaneous" below under this heading.

Co-Bond Counsel express no opinion on the effect of any action taken or not taken in reliance upon an opinion of other counsel on the federal income tax treatment of interest on the Series 2017A Notes, or under State, local or foreign tax law.

Bond Premium. If a noteholder purchases a Series 2017A Note for a price that is more than the principal amount, generally the excess is "bond premium" on that Series 2017A Note. The tax accounting treatment of bond premium is complex. It is amortized over time and as it is amortized a noteholder's tax basis in that Series 2017A Note will be reduced. The holder of a Series 2017A Note that is callable before its stated maturity date may be required to amortize the premium over a shorter period, resulting in a lower yield on such Series 2017A Note. A noteholder in certain circumstances may realize a taxable gain upon the sale of a Series 2017A Note with bond premium, even though the Series 2017A Note is sold for an amount less than or equal to the owner's original cost. If a noteholder owns any Series 2017A Notes with bond premium, it should consult its tax advisor regarding the tax accounting treatment of bond premium.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information reporting requirements apply to interest paid on tax-exempt obligations, such as the Series 2017A Notes. In general, such requirements are satisfied if the interest recipient completes, and provides the payor with, a Form W-9, "Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification," or if the interest recipient is one of a limited class of exempt recipients. A recipient not otherwise exempt from information reporting who fails to satisfy the information reporting requirements will be subject to "backup withholding," which means that the payor is required to deduct and withhold a tax from the interest payment, calculated in the manner set forth in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. For the foregoing purpose, a "payor" generally refers to the person or entity from whom a recipient receives its payments of interest or who collects such payments on behalf of the recipient.

If a noteholder purchasing a Series 2017A Note through a brokerage account has executed a Form W-9 in connection with the establishment of such account, as generally can be expected, no backup withholding should occur. In any event, backup withholding does not affect the excludability of the interest on the Series 2017A Notes from gross income for federal income tax purposes. Any amounts withheld pursuant to backup withholding would be allowed as a refund or a credit against the noteholder's federal income tax once the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Miscellaneous

Legislative or administrative actions and court decisions, at either the federal or State level, may cause interest on the Series 2017A Notes to be subject, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, to federal, State or local income taxation, and thus have an adverse impact on the value or marketability of the Series 2017A Notes. This could result from changes to federal or State income tax rates, changes in the structure of federal or State income taxes (including replacement with another type of tax), repeal of the exclusion of the interest on the Series 2017A Notes from gross income for federal or State income tax purposes or otherwise. For example, presidential budget proposals in recent years have proposed legislation that would limit the extent of the exclusion from gross income of interest on obligations of states and political subdivisions under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (including the Series 2017A Notes) for taxpayers whose income exceeds certain thresholds. It is not possible to predict whether any legislative or administrative actions or court decisions having an adverse impact on the federal or State income tax treatment of holders of the Series 2017A Notes may occur. Prospective purchasers of the Series 2017A Notes should consult their own tax advisors regarding the impact of any change in law on the Series 2017A Notes. Co-Bond Counsel have not undertaken to advise in the future whether any events after the date of issuance and delivery of the Series 2017A Notes may affect the tax status of interest on the Series 2017A Notes.

Prospective purchasers of the Series 2017A Notes should consult their own tax advisors regarding the foregoing matters.

LEGALITY FOR INVESTMENT

The MTA Act provides that the Series 2017A Notes are securities in which the following investors may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them:

- all public officers and bodies of the State and all municipalities and political subdivisions in the State.
- all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business,
- all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and
- all other persons whatsoever who are now or who may hereafter be authorized to invest in the obligations of the State.

Certain of those investors, however, may be subject to separate restrictions that limit or prevent their investment in the Series 2017A Notes.

LITIGATION

There is no pending litigation concerning the Series 2017A Notes.

MTA is the defendant in numerous claims and actions, as are its affiliates and subsidiaries, including MTA New York City Transit, MaBSTOA, MTA Long Island Rail Road, MTA Metro-North Railroad, MTA Bus and MTA Bridges and Tunnels. Certain of these claims and actions, either individually or in the aggregate, are potentially material to MTA, its affiliates or subsidiaries. MTA does not believe that any of these claims or actions would affect the application of the sources of payment for the Series 2017A Notes. A summary of certain of these potentially material claims and actions is set forth in Part 6 of the ADS under the caption "LITIGATION," as that filing may be amended or supplemented to date.

FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Public Resources Advisory Group, Inc. and Rockfleet Financial Services, Inc. are MTA's co-financial advisors for the Series 2017A Notes. The co-financial advisors have not independently verified the information contained in this offering memorandum and do not assume responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of such information.

The Underwriters and their respective affiliates are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. Certain of the Underwriters and their respective affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various investment banking services for MTA, for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses.

In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Underwriters and their respective affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities, which may include credit default swaps) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions in such securities and instruments. #### RATINGS

The Summary of Terms identifies the ratings of the credit rating agencies that are assigned to the Series 2017A Notes. Those ratings reflect only the views of the organizations assigning them. An explanation of the significance of the ratings or any outlooks or other statements given with respect thereto from each identified agency may be obtained as follows:

Fitch Ratings 33 Whitehall Street New York, New York 10004 (212) 908-0500

Moody's Investors Service, Inc. 7 World Trade Center New York, New York 10007 (212) 553-0300 Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc. 845 Third Avenue New York, New York 10022 (212) 702-0707

S&P Global Ratings 55 Water Street New York, New York 10041 (212) 438-2000

MTA has furnished information to each rating agency rating the notes being offered, including information not included in this offering memorandum, about MTA and the notes. Generally, rating agencies base their ratings on that information and on independent investigations, studies and assumptions made by each rating agency. A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities. There can be no assurance that ratings will continue for any given period of time or that they will not be revised downward or withdrawn entirely by a rating agency if, in the judgment of that rating agency, circumstances warrant the revision or withdrawal. Those circumstances may include, among other things, changes in or unavailability of information relating to MTA or the notes. Any downward revision or withdrawal of a rating may have an adverse effect on the market price of the notes.

LEGAL MATTERS

All legal proceedings in connection with the issuance of the notes being offered are subject to the approval of Nixon Peabody LLP and D. Seaton and Associates, P.A., P.C., Co-Bond Counsel to MTA. The form of the opinion of Co-Bond Counsel is Attachment 3 to this offering memorandum.

MTA has undertaken to file such information (the Annual Information) with EMMA.

MTA has further agreed to deliver notice to EMMA of any failure to provide the Annual Information. MTA is also obligated to deliver, in a timely manner not in excess of ten business days after the occurrence of each event, notices of the following events to EMMA:

- principal and interest payment delinquencies;
- non-payment related defaults, if material;
- unscheduled draws on debt service reserves reflecting financial difficulties;

- modifications to the rights of security holders, if material;

- appointment of a successor or additional trustee or the change in name of a trustee, if material.

MTA has not failed to comply, in any material respect, with any previous undertakings in a written contract or agreement specified in paragraph (b)(5)(i) of Rule 15c2-12 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY SYSTEM

- 1. The Depository Trust Company (DTC), New York, NY, will act as securities depository for the Series 2017A Notes. The Series 2017A Notes will be issued as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee) or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. One fully-registered Series 2017A Note will be issued for each maturity of the Series 2017A Notes, each in the aggregate principal amount of such maturity, and will be deposited with DTC. If, however, the aggregate principal amount of any maturity of the Series 2017A Notes exceeds $500 million, one note of such maturity will be issued with respect to each $500 million of principal amount, and an additional note will be issued with respect to any remaining principal amount of such maturity.
- DTC, the world's largest depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 3.5 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues, and money market instruments (from over 100 countries) that DTC's participants (Direct Participants) deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between Direct Participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly (Indirect Participants). DTC has a S&P rating of AA+. The DTC Rules applicable to Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com.
- Purchases of Series 2017A Notes under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the Series 2017A Notes on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each Series 2017A Note (Beneficial Owner) is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants' records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the Series 2017A Notes are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct and Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in Series 2017A Notes, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the Series 2017A Notes is discontinued.
- 4. To facilitate subsequent transfers, all Series 2017A Notes deposited by Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC's partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of Series 2017A Notes with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the Series 2017A Notes; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such Series 2017A Notes are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct and Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

- 5. Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Beneficial Owners of Series 2017A Notes may wish to take certain steps to augment the transmission to them of notices of significant events with respect to the Series 2017A Notes, such as redemptions, tenders, defaults, and proposed amendments to the Series 2017A Note documents. For example, Beneficial Owners of the Series 2017A Notes may wish to ascertain that the nominee holding the Series 2017A Notes for their benefit has agreed to obtain and transmit notices to Beneficial Owners. In the alternative, Beneficial Owners may wish to provide their names and addresses to the registrar and request that copies of notices be provided directly to them.
- 6. Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC. If less than all of the Series 2017A Notes of any maturity are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant in such maturity to be redeemed.
- 7. Neither DTC nor Cede & Co. (nor any other DTC nominee) will consent or vote with respect to the Series 2017A Notes unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's MMI Procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an Omnibus Proxy to MTA as soon as possible after the record date. The Omnibus Proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts Series 2017A Notes are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the Omnibus Proxy).
- Redemption proceeds and principal and interest payments on the Series 2017A Notes will be made to Cede & Co., or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC's practice is to credit Direct Participants' accounts upon DTC's receipt of funds and corresponding detailed information from MTA or the Trustee, on payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name," and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, the Trustee or MTA, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of redemption proceeds and principal and interest payments to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) is the responsibility of MTA or the Trustee, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants will be the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the Beneficial Owners will be the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants.
- 9. DTC may discontinue providing its services as depository with respect to the Series 2017A Notes at any time by giving reasonable notice to MTA or the Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not obtained, certificates for the Series 2017A Notes are required to be printed and delivered.
- 10. MTA may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry-only transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, certificates for the Series 2017A Notes will be printed and delivered to DTC.

THE ABOVE INFORMATION CONCERNING DTC AND DTC'S BOOK-ENTRY SYSTEM HAS BEEN OBTAINED FROM SOURCES THAT MTA BELIEVES TO BE RELIABLE, BUT MTA TAKES NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ACCURACY THEREOF.

CONTINUING DISCLOSURE UNDER SEC RULE 15c2-12

In order to assist the Underwriters in complying with the provisions of Rule 15c2-12 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Rule 15c2-12), MTA and the Trustee will enter into a written agreement (the Disclosure Agreement) for the benefit of holders of the Series 2017A Notes to provide continuing disclosure. Failure to comply with any provisions of the undertaking shall not constitute a default under the Transportation Resolution nor give right to the Trustee or any Owner to exercise any remedies under the Transportation Resolution. In addition, if all or any part of Rule 15c2-12 ceases to be in effect for any reason, then the information required to be provided under the undertaking insofar as the provision of Rule 15c2-12 no longer in effect required the provision of such information shall no longer be required to be provided.

The foregoing is intended to set forth a general description of the type of financial information and operating data that will be provided; the descriptions are not intended to state more than general categories of financial information and operating data, and where MTA's undertaking calls for information that no longer can be generated or is no longer relevant because the operations to which it related have been materially changed or discontinued, a statement to that effect will be provided. MTA does not anticipate that it often will be necessary to amend the undertaking. The undertaking, however, may be amended or modified under certain circumstances set forth therein and the undertaking will continue until the earlier of the date the Series 2017A Notes have been paid in full or legally defeased pursuant to the Transportation Resolution or the date the undertaking is no longer required by law. Copies of the undertaking when executed by the parties will be on file at the office of MTA.

FORM OF APPROVING OPINIONS OF CO-BOND COUNSEL

Upon delivery of the Series 2017A Notes in definitive form, each of Nixon Peabody LLP, New York, New York, and D. Seaton and Associates, P.A., P.C., New York, New York, Co-Bond Counsel to MTA, proposes to render its final approving opinion in substantially the following form:

[Date of Delivery]

Metropolitan Transportation Authority New York, New York

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have examined a certified copy of the record of proceedings of the Metropolitan Transportation Authority ("MTA") and other proofs submitted to us relative to the issuance of $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Metropolitan Transportation Authority Transportation Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, Subseries 2017A-1a, Subseries 2017A-1b, Subseries 2017A-1c, Subseries 2017A-1d, Subseries 2017A-1e, Subseries 2017A-1f and Subseries 2017A-1g (collectively, the "Subseries 2017A-1 Notes") and $200,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Metropolitan Transportation Authority Transportation Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, Subseries 2017A-2a, Subseries 2017A-2b, Subseries 2017A-2c, Subseries 2017A-2d and Subseries 2017A-2e (collectively, the "Subseries 2017A-2 Notes" and, together with the Subseries 2017A-1 Notes, the "Series 2017A Notes").

All terms defined in the Resolution (hereinafter defined) and used herein shall have the respective meanings assigned in the Resolution, except where the context hereof otherwise requires.

The Series 2017A Notes are issued under and pursuant to the Constitution and statutes of the State of New York (the "State"), including the Metropolitan Transportation Authority Act, being Title 11 of Article 5 of the Public Authorities Law, Chapter 43-A of the Consolidated Laws of the State of New York, as amended to the date of this opinion letter (herein called the "Issuer Act"), and under and pursuant to proceedings of MTA duly taken, including a resolution adopted by the members of MTA on March 26, 2002 entitled "General Resolution Authorizing Transportation Revenue Obligations", as supplemented by the Multiple Series 2017 Bond Anticipation Notes and Related Subordinated Indebtedness Transportation Revenue Bond Supplemental Resolution adopted on December 14, 2016 and the Multiple Series 2017 Transportation Revenue Bond Supplemental Resolution adopted on December 14, 2016 (collectively, the "Resolution").

The Series 2017A Notes are dated, mature, are payable and bear interest, all as provided in the Resolution.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), establishes certain requirements that must be met subsequent to the issuance and delivery of the Series 2017A Notes in order that interest on the Series 2017A Notes be and remain excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes under Section 103 of the Code. We have examined the Arbitrage and Use of Proceeds Certificate of MTA, dated the date hereof (the "Arbitrage and Use of Proceeds Certificate"), in which MTA has made representations, statements of intention and reasonable expectation, certifications of fact and covenants relating to the federal tax status of interest on the Series 2017A Notes, including, but not limited to, certain representations with respect to the use of the proceeds of the Series 2017A Notes and the investment of certain funds. The Arbitrage and Use of Proceeds Certificate obligates the MTA to take certain actions necessary to cause interest on the Series 2017A Notes to be excluded from gross income pursuant to Section 103 of the Code. Noncompliance with the requirements of the Code could cause interest on the Series 2017A Notes to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes retroactive to the date of issuance, irrespective of the date on which such noncompliance occurs or is ascertained. MTA has covenanted in the Resolution to maintain the exclusion of the interest on the Series 2017A Notes from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103(a) of the Code.

In rendering the opinion in paragraph 6 hereof, we have relied upon and assumed the material accuracy of the representations, statements of intention and reasonable expectation and certifications of fact contained in the Arbitrage and Use of Proceeds Certificate with respect to matters affecting the exclusion of interest on the Series 2017A Notes from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code, and compliance by the MTA with procedures and covenants set forth in the Arbitrage and Use of Proceeds Certificate as to such tax matters.

We have also examined one of said Series 2017A Notes as executed and, in our opinion, the form of said Series 2017A Note and its execution are regular and proper.

We are of the opinion that:

- 1. MTA is duly created and validly existing under the laws of the State, including the Constitution of the State and the Issuer Act.
- 2. MTA has the right and power under the Issuer Act to adopt the Resolution. The Resolution has been duly and lawfully adopted by MTA, is in full force and effect, is valid and binding upon MTA, and is enforceable in accordance with its terms, and no other authorization for the Resolution is required. The Resolution creates the valid pledge which it purports to create of the Trust Estate, subject only to the provisions of the Resolution permitting the application thereof for the purposes and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Resolution.
- 3. The Series 2017A Notes have been duly and validly authorized and issued in accordance with the laws of the State, including the Constitution of the State and the Issuer Act, and in accordance with the Resolution, and are valid and binding special obligations of MTA, enforceable in accordance with their terms and the terms of the Resolution, payable solely from (i) the proceeds of notes, including renewal notes, (ii) the proceeds of the Series A Bonds (as defined in the Resolution) and (iii) with respect to interest payable on the Series 2017A Notes, amounts available for payment of subordinated indebtedness in accordance with the Resolution. The Series 2017A Notes are not secured by any other funds, accounts or amounts that are pledged to the payment of Obligations or Parity Debt issued under the Resolution. MTA has no taxing power and the Series 2017A Notes are not debt of the State or of any other political subdivision thereof.
- 4. MTA, the holders of the Series 2017A Notes, or the holders of any evidence of indebtedness of MTA do not and will not have a pledge or lien on (i) the dedicated mass transportation trust fund established by Section 89-c of the State Finance Law, (ii) the metropolitan transportation authority financial assistance fund established by Section 92-ff of the State Finance Law, (iii) the metropolitan mass transportation operating assistance account established in the mass transit operating assistance fund pursuant to Section 88-a of the State Finance Law, or (iv) the taxes or moneys deposited therein.
- 5. The Series 2017A Notes are securities in which all public officers and bodies of the State and all municipalities and political subdivisions, all insurance companies and associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and savings associations, including savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons who are or may be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the State, may properly and legally invest funds including capital in their control or belonging to them to the extent that the legality of such investment is governed by the laws of the State; and which may be deposited with and shall be received by all public officers and bodies of the State and all municipalities and political subdivisions for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the State is or may be authorized.

- 6. Under existing statutes and court decisions, interest on the Series 2017A Notes (i) is excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code, and (ii) is not treated as a preference item in calculating the alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations under the Code; however, we note that interest is included in the adjusted current earnings of certain corporations for purposes of calculating the federal corporate alternative minimum tax.
- 7. Under existing statutes, interest on the Series 2017A Notes is exempt from personal income taxes imposed by the State or any political subdivision thereof, including The City of New York.

The opinions expressed in paragraphs 2 and 3 above are subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, reorganization, arrangements, fraudulent conveyances, moratorium and other laws heretofore or hereafter enacted affecting creditors' rights and are subject to the application of principles of equity relating to or affecting the enforcement of contractual obligations, whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law.

Except as stated in paragraphs 6 and 7, we express no opinion regarding any other federal, state, local or foreign tax consequences related to the ownership or disposition of, or the accrual or receipt of interest on, the Series 2017A Notes. We express no opinion regarding the federal, state, local or foreign tax consequences of any action hereafter taken or not taken in reliance upon an opinion of other counsel with respect to the Series 2017A Notes.

We express no opinion as to the accuracy or sufficiency of any financial or other information which has been or will be supplied to purchasers of the Series 2017A Notes. Our services did not include financial or other non-legal advice. Finally, we undertake no responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or fairness of the Offering Memorandum or other offering material relating to the Series 2017A Notes and express no opinion with respect thereto.

This opinion letter is rendered solely with regard to the matters expressly opined on above and does not consider or extend to any documents, agreements, representations or other material of any kind not specifically opined on above. No other opinions are intended nor should they be inferred. This opinion letter is issued as of the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to update, revise or supplement this opinion letter to reflect any future actions, facts or circumstances that may hereafter come to our attention, or any changes in law, or in interpretations thereof, that may hereafter occur, or for any reason whatsoever.

Very truly yours,

SUPPLEMENT TO THE 2016 MTA ANNUAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT, DATED JANUARY 31, 2017

This Supplement to the Metropolitan Transportation Authority ("MTA") Annual Disclosure Statement is dated January 31, 2017 (the "Supplement") and contains information only about the specific matters described herein and only through that date. The 2016 MTA Annual Disclosure Statement (as heretofore supplemented and updated, the "ADS") dated April 29, 2016, as supplemented May 10, 2016, as updated on August 17, 2016 ("First Quarterly Update"), as supplemented October 11, 2016, and as updated on December 21, 2016 ("Second Quarterly Update") should be read, in its entirety, in connection with the information in this Supplement. MTA expects to file this Supplement with the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board on its Electronic Municipal Market Access system and may incorporate such information herein by specific cross-reference. MTA retains the right to further update and supplement specific information contained herein as events warrant.

The factors affecting MTA's financial condition are complex. This Supplement may contain forecasts, projections, and estimates that are based on expectations and assumptions, which existed at the time they were prepared, and contains statements relating to future results and economic performance that are "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements generally are identifiable by the terminology used, such as "plan," "expect," "estimate," "budget," "project," "forecast," "anticipate" or other similar words. The forward looking statements contained herein are based on MTA's expectations and are necessarily dependent upon assumptions, estimates and data that it believes are reasonable as of the date made but that may be incorrect, incomplete, imprecise or not reflective of actual results. Forecasts, projections and estimates are not intended as representations of fact or guarantees of results. The achievement of certain results or other expectations contained in such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, performance or achievements described to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Except as set forth in the preceding paragraph, MTA does not plan to issue any updates or revisions to those forward-looking statements if or when its expectations or events, conditions or circumstances on which such statements are based occur. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Supplement.

This Supplement updates information set forth in the ADS relating to certain funding challenges for MTA, the approval of 2017 fare and toll increases, a draw on a line of credit to pay down certain outstanding notes of MTA and the appointment of an interim Executive Director and acting Chairman.

Challenges Going Forward

While MTA's financial position has improved, as reflected in the November Financial Plan 2017-2020, as approved by the MTA Board on December 14, 2016, there are challenges and risks going forward in addition to those set forth in the Second Quarterly Update to MTA's 2016 Annual Disclosure Statement dated December 21, 2016:

Reductions in Certain New York State ("State") Support Revenues. The Governor's Executive Budget for the State fiscal year ("SFY") starting April 1, 2017 and released on January 17, 2017, includes reductions in expected Metropolitan Mass Transportation Operating Assistance ("MMTOA") and Payroll Mobility Tax ("PMT") replacement funds (referred to as "PMT Revenue Offset") payable from appropriated State budget funds. Specifically, the Executive Budget, throughout this Supplement, if enacted as proposed by the Governor without amendment or revision, would hold MMTOA revenue flat in MTA's fiscal year ending December 31, 2017. This is the second consecutive year that the Executive Budget has held MTA's MMTOA revenues constant. In addition to the reduction in expected MMTOA revenue, the Executive Budget also reduces the PMT Revenue Offset appropriations by $67 million for MTA's 2017 fiscal year and projects no growth from that level for the remaining plan years through 2020. As a partial offset, the Executive Budget does forecast $9 million in higher Petroleum Business Tax receipts and $8 million in higher MTA Aid than are in the November Financial Plan 2017-2020. The combined impact to MTA is a projected reduction in revenue of $125 million in 2017 which the MTA fully expects to offset in the February Plan update. Sources may include, but are not limited to, Business Interruption Insurance proceeds, debt service savings and the identification of additional operating efficiencies.

As advised by the New York State Division of the Budget ("DOB"), MTA will be adjusting the growth assumptions for MMTOA revenue based on the latest projections provided by DOB for the 2018-2020 plan years in the 2017 MTA February Financial Plan ("February Plan"). MTA will continue to take appropriate action to remedy any future plan years projected deficits. The combined effect of the impact of the Executive Budget and moderate adjustments to the projected growth assumptions of MMTOA on MTA's operating budget and financial plan are detailed below:

	2017	2018	2019	2020

Delays in Programmed Capital Support. Programmed support from the State for various elements of MTA's 2005-2009 and 2010-2014 Capital Programs has not been paid to MTA. The MTA has not received a capital payment from the State since SFY 2014, when it received $150 million from the proceeds of State authority revenue bonds for the 2010-2014 Capital Program. Subsequent to the State's 2014 Capital Program and Financing Plan (part of the State's budget for SFY ending March 31, 2014), amounts pledged by the State to MTA have been delayed in their scheduled payment in the last two SFY Capital Program and Financing Plans included as part of each enacted State budget.

DOB has advised MTA that it will receive a portion of the delayed capital support in MTA's 2017 fiscal year, but no definitive schedule for the anticipated receipt of such funds has been provided to MTA at this time. Receipt of such capital support would reduce the amount of MTA borrowing by a comparable amount and reduce MTA's projected debt service over the near term.

The State has proposed additional new capital projects for inclusion in existing programs, including projects that are expected to be considered by the MTA Board in February, 2017 for inclusion in amendments to the MTA 2015-2019 Capital Program. In addition to such proposed capital program amendments and the delayed funding by the State of its commitments to the MTA's 2005-2009 and 2010-2014 Capital Programs, State capital funding support for the MTA's 2015-2019 Capital Program totaling $8.3 billion is back-loaded with almost 90% due when funding will also be required for MTA's 2020-2024 Capital Program. The current MTA 2015-2019 Capital Program funding schedule reflects payments by the State in fulfillment of its financial commitment to MTA beginning with $150 million in SFY 2018, $250 million in SFY 2019 and $350 million in SFY 2020, and $250 million for Penn Station Access when required, with final aggregate payments in an amount equal to $7,336 million to be made no later than SFY 2026. The State may choose to fund its commitments in any number of ways, including, without limitation, direct grants, State G.O. Bonds or State appropriation-backed bonds, or the provision of incremental revenue streams to secure MTA bonds. However, in light of, among other things, the State's financial commitments to other major capital projects throughout the State and statutorily imposed State debt issuance limitations, no assurances can be given that the State will have the ability to timely fulfill its past and future funding commitments to MTA's capital projects. Any such means of funding will require significant State revenues for extended periods and could be subject to future discretionary executive and legislative actions.

Board Approval of 2017 Fare/Toll Increases

On January 25, 2017, the MTA Board approved 4% rate increases in transit and commuter fares and MTA Bridges and Tunnels tolls to be implemented on March 19, 2017. As previously disclosed in the Second Quarterly Update, the projected increased revenues generated by these biennial fare and toll increases are incorporated in the MTA's 2017-2020 Financial Plan.

Highlights of the adjustments include:

- maintaining the base fare for subways and buses at $2.75 and keeping a pay-per-ride bonus, making the effective fare with the bonus $2.62;
- the 7-Day Unlimited Ride MetroCard will increase by a dollar to $32; the 30-day Unlimited Ride MetroCard will increase from $116.50 to $121;
- the majority of Long Island Rail Road and Metro-North Railroad riders will see weekly and monthly passes increases of 3.75% or less, with increases in monthly tickets capped at $15; intermediate monthly and weekly ticket increases are also capped at 3.75%; some one-way fares will have larger increases only because fares must occur in 25-cent increments; for these one-way fares, any increase greater than 6

- percent would be not more than 50 cents per ride; West of Hudson customers will see a 2% increase in fares; City Ticket remains unchanged at $4.25; and
- tolls will rise less than 25 cents for cars crossing MTA Bridges and Tunnels facilities and using a New York Customer Service Center ("NYCSC") E-ZPass, an estimated 73% of total crossings; customers who pay with cash, Tolls by Mail or a non-NYCSC E-ZPass will see increases of 6.3% to 9.1%. This proposal is consistent with the MTA policy to increase the price differential between cash and E-ZPass to encourage E-ZPass use, which is the least expensive way to collect and pay tolls.

Complete schedules of new fares and tolls effective on March 19, 2017, are set forth on MTA's website at: http://web.mta.info/fares.

Draw on RBC Line of Credit to Retire Transportation Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, Subseries 2016A-2.

On January 31, 2017, MTA made a $200 million draw on the $350 million Revolving Credit Agreement with Royal Bank of Canada ("RBC Agreement"), secured by the Taxable Transportation Revenue Anticipation Notes, Series 2014A (Working Capital Revolving Credit Facility), in order to retire the Transportation Revenue Bond Anticipation Notes, Subseries 2016A-2 upon their maturity on February 1, 2017. The RBC Agreement expires on July 7, 2017, and MTA currently expects to pay the amounts outstanding thereunder prior to maturity using proceeds from the sale of its Transportation Revenue Bonds.

Governance.

On January 30, 2017, Governor Cuomo announced that, effective February 1, 2017, Veronique Hakim, currently President of New York City Transit, will serve as interim Executive Director of MTA while a seven-person committee conducts a nationwide search for a permanent Chair and Chief Executive Officer. MTA Vice Chairman Fernando Ferrer will serve as Acting Chairman during the search for a permanent replacement.
